Welcome to the Southeast Missouri State University Employee Training website. Southeast Missouri State University is committed to creating an environment of learning and performance that furthers Southeast's mission, vision and values, and responds to current and future priority human resource development needs. We are committed to the acquisition, retention, and development of a first-class workforce. To that end, we plan to offer cutting-edge, reflective workplace learning opportunities for the university's staff members. This includes the delivery of training designed to offer professional education opportunities and enhance the employee's expertise and appreciation for lifelong learning.

We hope you will find this site useful and you take advantage of all the opportunities provided to our employees.
