

How to Declare a Major

Fill out a Declaration of Major form in the appropriate department (see the list below). Please remember, you cannot declare a minor until you have declared a major. *

Where to Declare Your Major

College of Business 651-5090

Advising Center - Dempster Hall 123

All business majors must be declared in the College of Business Advising Center (DH123)

Departments:

Accounting and MIS

Economics and Finance Office of International Business Programs

Management and Marketing

College of Education 651-2412

Advising Center - Scully 304

Elementary, Early and Special Education – declare in College of Education Advising Center – SC304

Middle School (Grades 5-9) - Scully 245

Secondary Education -

Secondary education students declare major in the department of subject area:

Pre-Vocational Agriculture – Seabaugh 118

Art – (K- 12) River Campus Seminary 104

Biology - Rhodes Hall 117

Business Education - Dempster Hall 123

Chemistry - Rhodes Hall 117

English - Grauel 318N

Family and Consumer Science - (Birth through Grade 12) Scully 114

Foreign Languages (French, German, Spanish) – (K –12) Old Art Building 202

Industrial Education – (K-12) Polytechnic Building 118

Math - Johnson Hall 201 or Rhodes Hall 117

Music (Vocal and Instrumental) K-12 – River Campus Seminary 254

Physical Education (K-12) - Parker Hall 204

Physics - Rhodes Hall 117 or 306

Social Studies – Carnahan 311E

College of Health and Human Services 651-2015

Advising Center – Academic 104

Departments:

Aerospace Studies - General Services Building (Minor only)

Communication Disorders - Grauel 210

Criminal Justice and Sociology - Brandt 329

Health, Human Performance and Recreation - Parker Hall 216

- Athletic Training
- Health Management -Exercise Science or Health Promotion
- Physical Education (K-12)
- Recreation
- Sport Management
- Pre Physical Therapy

Human Environmental Studies - Scully 114 Hospitality Management Child Development

- Dietetics
- Family Life
- Fashion Merchandising
- Housing and Interior Design

Nursing – Crisp 318

Social Work - Crisp Hall 213

College of Liberal Arts 651-2007

Advising Center – Academic 104

Mass Communication students with less than 15 hours must declare in Liberal Arts Advising Center

Departments:

Art – River Campus Seminary 104

Communication Studies – Grauel 107

English - Grauel 318N

Foreign Languages and Anthropology – Art Building 202

Global Studies – Art Building 202

History/ Historic Preservation - Carnahan 311E

Mass Media – Grauel 103C

Music – River Campus Seminary 254

Political Science, Philosophy and Religion –Carnahan 211B

Pre-Law – Carnahan 211B

Psychology - Scully 404

Theatre and Dance – River Campus Seminary 454

College of Science and Mathematics 651-2173

Advising Center - Rhodes Hall 117

All majors must be declared in the Science and Math Advising Center (RH 117)

Departments:

Biology

Chemistry

Computer Science

Environmental Science

Mathematics

Physics and Engineering

Pre-Professional programs: Pre-Engineering, Pre-Chiropractic, Pre-Dentistry, Pre-Medicine, Pre-Optometry, or Pre-Pharmacy

School of Polytechnic Studies 651-5930

Advising Center – Seabaugh Polytechnic Building 118

All majors can be declared in the Polytechnic Studies Advising Center (Polytechnic 118) or the Department offices:

Departments:

Agriculture – Magill 109

Pre-Veterinary Medicine – Magill 109 or Polytechnic Building 118

Industrial and Engineering Technology – Polytechnic Building 216 or 118

Pre-Architecture – Polytechnic Building 216 or 118

School of University Studies 986-7328

Advising Center – Academic Hall 317

Undeclared/Exploratory Majors – students can “un-declare” a major and switch to exploratory

Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) - students can inquire about the IDS degree

Bachelor of General Studies (BGS)

This is not a listing of all Southeast majors. To obtain a complete list please refer to the Undergraduate Bulletin.

Revised: 10/6/2009