At Southeast Missouri State University, we’re here to put in the work. Because real credit can’t be given. It has to be earned. By coming to the table with big ideas and taking action while taking nothing for granted.

Our region needed a cultural center, so we built one. Our students need cutting-edge programs, so we create them. Our community needs top teachers, caregivers, and agricultural minds, so we prepare them.

Progress will be made by those with the courage to question.

THE HUNGER TO KNOW.
AND THE WILL TO DO.

Whatever you do—whether it’s joining a club or carrying on a tradition—just know that you won’t be doing it alone.
