Director of Choral Activities, Southeast Missouri State University

Performances by the Festival Choir, Southeast's University Choir and Chamber Choir and the men of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia

October 29, 2011

Southeast Missouri State University – River Campus

ONE DAY EVENT!

Final Concert: 5:30 p.m.

High School-age male vocalists are invited to join conductor Dr. Peter J. Durow for a one-day festival culminating in a performance by the high school Men's Festival Chorus, the University Choir (Dr. Peter J. Durow, conductor), Chamber Choir (Dr. Steven Hendricks, conductor) and the men of the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. The purposes of the Men's Festival Choir are multi-faceted and include study of vocal technique, rehearsal procedure and performance practice. Junior and Senior singers may also take advantage of a brief mini-lesson with a member of Southeast's voice faculty.

NO PREPARATION IS NECESSARY
MUSIC WILL BE LEARNED AND PERFORMED IN ONE DAY

The required fee of $20 per student includes a music folder and lunch. A T-shirt may also be purchased in advance with your registration for an additional $10. T-shirt orders must be made in advance. All proceeds from T-shirt sales go to the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (PMA) music fraternity.

For information or questions, please contact Dr. Peter J. Durow by telephone at (573) 651-2342 or by email at pdurow@semo.edu
