A major in criminal justice offers outstanding academic preparations for careers in law enforcement and corrections. The Department of Criminal Justice prepares students to contribute to the pressing social problems in the areas of crime prevention, protection and rehabilitation. A college degree is becoming necessary to advance in today’s criminal justice careers.

Within the major of criminal justice, we offer three options: Law Enforcement, Corrections and Criminology. The corrections option prepares to enter corrections positions at the local, county, state and federal levels. Courses in this option include constitutional rights of inmates, community-based corrections, offender rehabilitation and correctional institutions. This option prepares students for managerial positions in corrections and law enforcement, federal law enforcement positions that require specialized skills, and/or graduate studies.

NOTE: As a criminal justice major, students are required to complete 120 hours. Fifty-five hours are University Studies courses which provide students with the knowledge, skills and experience necessary to become well-rounded members of society. There are 30 hours required in core criminal justice courses, and 15-18 hours are selected in any of the three options.

Special Options with Corrections

This program of study is also available to students on the main campus and at a Regional Campus (Kennett, Malden, and Sikeston).
This is a guide based on the 2015-2016 Undergraduate Bulletin and is subject to change. The time it takes to earn a degree will vary based on several factors such as dual enrollment, remediation, and summer enrollment.
