Sport Management Graduate Student Learning Goals

1. Evaluate sport management principles and theories.
2. Evaluate sport management problems and justify solutions from multiple alternatives using advanced critical thinking skills.
3. Compose professional documents and presentations using effective written and oral communication skills.
4. Use technology for analysis and communication with advanced skill.
5. Find and apply empirical research in sport management.