Sport Management Undergraduate Student Learning Outcomes

Student learning outcomes are measured for every required sport management class beginning fall 2012. Program learning outcomes are reported annually.

Program Learning Outcomes Highlights:

- 100% of B.S. in Sport Management Students demonstrate writing proficiency.
- 100% of Internship Supervisors indicate they would hire or recommend the student intern for hire.
- Student senior portfolios reveal that students are proficient in sport management common professional component areas (Mean is greater than 4 on a 5 point scale across all competencies)
- Student portfolios reveal students possess critical thinking skills are above average.