Title of Course: Independent Study in Management Information Systems

New: Fall 2008

I. Catalog Description and Credit Hours of Course:

Intensive study of special problems related to Management Information Systems. One, two, or three credit hours.

II. Prerequisite(s):

A. A minimum of 75 hours completed;
B. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5 overall or 2.75 in the major;
C. A minimum of 9 semester hours in the major completed;
D. Permission of the department chairperson.

III. Purposes or Objective of the Course:

At the completion of this course a student should be able to demonstrate proficiency in the objectives of the study as outlined in the student’s proposal for the study.

IV. Expectations of Students:

A. Normally a person is accepted for independent study when there are extenuating circumstances that would make it impossible for that person to enroll in a regularly scheduled class. In every instance, the student must get prior approval from the professor who teaches the course & chairperson of the department in which the course is being offered.
B. The student is expected to develop a proposal for the independent study and obtain the intended instructor's approval of the proposal.
C. The student is expected to consult with the instructor periodically (as outlined in the proposal) concerning the progress of the independent study.

V. Course Content or Outline:

A specific content or outline is required at the time of approval. Learning experience is expected to be consistent with the University, College of Business Administration, & the Department of Accounting & MIS expectations.

VI. Textbook(s) and/or Other Required Materials or Equipment:

None

VII. Basis for Student Evaluation:

Evaluation of the fulfillment of the student's academic responsibilities as defined by the Management Information Systems faculty member responsible for the independent study in consultation with the department chairperson.
