THE TEACHER AS COMPETENT PROFESSIONAL EDUCATOR

Dept. of Middle and Secondary Education    Course No.: EF680
Course Title: Topics in Educational Foundations    New: Fall 2002

I. Catalog Description and Credit Hours of Course:
   An examination of current issues associated with a general investigation of foundations of education, including those identified with sociology, history, philosophy and anthropology of education (3)

II. Prerequisite(s):
   Graduate standing

III. Purposes or Objectives of the Course:
   Objectives will vary depending on the specific topics course’s content.

IV. Expectations of Students:
   These will vary depending on the specific topics course’s content.

V. Course Outline or Content:
   These will vary depending on the specific topics course’s content.

VI. Textbook(s) and/or Other Required Materials:
   Usage and specific texts, articles and other media will vary depending on the specific topics course’s content.

VII. Basis for Student Evaluation:
   Assignments and grades will be based on student performance as defined by the specific topics course’s expectations of the students. These will be in the form of graduate-level written assignments, projects, participation in class and/or on the Web, and final exams where applicable.

VIII. Knowledge Base
   The specific knowledge base will vary depending on the focus of the specific topics course and on that course’s objectives. All knowledge base references included will be foundational in nature and will include both general references and those more specific to that particular topics course.