

Human Environmental Studies: Fashion Merchandising Option

Bachelor of Science (BS)

Fashion Merchandising Option

Retail and wholesale fashion merchandising is one of today's most vital and dynamic industries. This ever-changing field includes global opportunities in the areas of apparel, accessories, home furnishings and gifts. Opportunities include the fields of retail, media, public relations and technology. Academic training is designed to develop the creative, technical and business skills to become a successful fashion professional.

Fashion Merchandising students will...

- Gain the knowledge and professionalism required to assume an entry-level position upon graduation.
- Be exposed to all areas of the global fashion business in the classroom.
- Participate in an internship that fits their skills and future goals within the fashion industry.
- Have the opportunity to travel to national and international markets.
- Have access to study abroad programs offered within the Donald L. Harrison College of Business.

Career Planning

Career preparation is part of the mission of Southeast. In fact, more than 90% of Southeast students participate in internships, clinical opportunities, student teaching, research assistantships, and study abroad.

Entry level employment is available in the retail and wholesale fashion markets upon graduation. Professional development is included in the fashion merchandising curriculum.

Professional career counselors are available for all students. The Office of Career Services in Academic Hall 057 can provide students with professional career counseling, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities, and more.

Demonstrated Career Proficiency is a Requirement of all Southeast Students
CL001/CL002	First Semester	Complete the FOCUS2 assessment and develop a Career Action Plan.
CL003	Junior Year	Students gain information about career planning and job searching resources.
CL004	Senior Year	Students demonstrate advanced proficiency by identifying a position in their field, developing a cover letter, and tailoring a resume for the position. Materials are critiqued to ensure preparedness for a successful job search.
