Bachelor of Arts (BA)

Music (BA)

Students pursuing the Bachelor of Arts in music encounter a curriculum that exposes them to an in-depth study of music theory, music history, as well as disciplines outside of music. This degree option is unique in that it requires a minor area of study, giving students the opportunity to explore the fine arts entrepreneurship program. The Bachelor of Arts degree is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

Becoming Career Ready...

THE HOLLAND COLLEGE OF ARTS AND MEDIA PREPARES YOU TO EARN A LIVING "DOING WHAT YOU LOVE TO DO."

/ Students interact with performing artists and educators who are recognized nationally and internationally.

/ BA in Music graduates work in education, business and arts industries. Examples of job titles include teacher, performer, songwriter, music publisher and concert promoter.

/ Students in the major attend classes and lessons on the beautiful River Campus in modern performance facilities.

/ Music majors participate in a range of performance ensembles.

/ A minor in entrepreneurship is offered and tailored to the needs of Holland College students. Students have the option of adding this minor, further enhancing the ability to be creative and innovative in developing their chosen career.

/ BA in Music students study in a program that is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music.

/ 100% of Southeast programs offer a real-world experience. BA students gain this through opportunities in Fine Arts Entrepreneurship as a minor, performance juries, ensemble performances, opportunities for independent contracting outside the department and professional audition-like coaching. Students may also teach through the Southeast Music Academy.

/ The path to a successful career starts with you! You can maximize your career development by working closely with Career Services and Southeast faculty – they are here to help you connect your passions, interests and skills in the arts to jobs and opportunities in the industry. Career Services provides professional career counseling and coaching, resume critiques, practice interviews, job search strategies, career events, networking opportunities and more.

Admission Requirements

Students who wish to declare music as their major must meet admission requirements of the university and of the department. A performance audition before applied music faculty of the appropriate area is required. Acceptance in a music degree program is contingent upon the demonstration of a basic level of competency in a performance medium, the ability to read musical notation, the ability to hear and reproduce pitches, the recommendation of a music professional, and the approval of the music faculty. Specific audition and admission requirements may be obtained at <http://www.semo.edu/music/admissions/auditions.htm>.
